DEAD ENDS & DETOURS

BROADCASTS FROM THE OLD STRATHCONA FARMERS' MARKET

Dead Ends & Detours broadcasts live from the Old Strathcona Farmers' Market Saturday, February 19. Join host Peter North on location from 9-10am as he journeys into the Grateful Dead catalogue and kicks off the countdown to the Winter Roots and Blues Round-Up.

folkwaysAlive! at the University of Alberta and Peter North launch the second edition of the Winter Roots and Blues Roundup, running February 24 – 27. The five-day Roundup meshes concerts with film screenings, seminars and thematic workshops at a number of venues including the Yardbird Suite, Metro Cinema, Expressionz Café, the Century Casino Showroom and The Blue Chair Café.

Dead Ends & Detours is a weekly exploration of the Grateful Dead scope which touches on many of the Dead's influences, musical friends and side projects. From Old and In The Way to Mickey Hart with Kodo, to Jerry Garcia picking with Country Joe McDonald or Bob Weir singing Marty Robbins, there's endless tributaries to explore, courtesy one of the most popular bands in contemporary North American culture.
